

54TH CONCOURS HIPPIQUE
INTERNATIONAL DE GENEVE
11th to 14th December 2014

PRESS RELEASE

ALL CURRENT MAJOR CHAMPIONS IN GENEVA

Just a month to go until the Concours Hippique International de Genève (CHI) kicks off and the participation is looking top notch with all the current champions responding present: Olympic champions, individual and team World champions, the European champion as well as the previous winner of the Rolex IJRC Top 10 Final and the actual leader of the World ranking. Geneva is an essential date in the agenda at this year's end.

The public in Geneva will be spoilt rotten from December 11th through December 14th 2014! All the title holders have planned to attend. With the Olympic champion, Steve Guerdat, also a participant in the 14th edition of the Rolex IJRC Top 10 Final. Facing him, a strong Dutch delegation comprised of the World Champion 2014, Jeroen Dubbeldam, surrounded by his three World champion compatriots, Jur Vrieling, Maikel van der Vleuten and Gerco Schröder, all silver medallists at the Olympic Games in London.

France, vice World champion in Normandy last August, will also be present in Geneva with the identical team comprised of Patrice Delaveau, also the individual world vice-champion, Pénélope Leprevost, Kevin Staut, Simon Delestre and their reservist, Jérôme Hurel. The tri-coloured delegation will be reinforced with the presence of Roger-Yves Bost, European champion and recent winner of the World Cup Grand Prix in Lyon.

To top off this exceptional tableau, the German rider, Daniel Deusser, winner of last year's Rolex IJRC Top 10 Final as well as the World Cup champion in 2014, and the British, n°1 in the world, Scott Brash will ride the Palexpo arena, an arena that shines the brightest stars in the world.

Geneva, November 12th 2014

Additional information: www.chi-geneve.ch
Like and find the CHI Geneva online:

For any additional information, Corinne Druey, Press Officer, is available on +41 21 312 82 22.

